Business Safe

“size doesn’t matter”

Did you know?

The Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999 requires that employers appoint one or more “competent persons” to assist them in complying with health and safety law which is relevant to their business.

Most companies however cannot justify a full time safety advisor and may not have the necessary skills in—house for an employee to act as their competent person, this is where Bespoke Safety Solutions can help you. For a fraction of the cost of employing additional resource you can tap into a wealth of knowledge and experience

The health check

It is important to understand the current and future needs of your business and so the first thing we do is carry out a free initial “health check” on your business. By doing this we will identify:

- What systems you already have in place
- Area’s for improvement
- What you will need in the way of external assistance from us

What services can we offer you as part of this scheme?

- Act as your competent person
- Telephone and email support when you need it from someone who knows your business
- Updates on health and safety legislation and a health and safety review annually or more often
- Draft and review method statements and risk assessments including COSHH assessments
- Preparing and updating your company health and safety policy at least once a year
- Assistance with the completion of health and safety competency questionnaires and other documentation
- Access to a 'customer only' online document library
- Fire safety advice
- Minimum of four face fit tests per year
- Site audits
- Regular health and safety briefings and newsletters
- Assistance with sourcing training courses and preparing training records

You will also be able to access the following at a reduced rate:

- Fire risk assessment service
- Accident investigation service
- Site inspection services
- Human Resources support

So what is the cost?

We know one of the most important things is to have a good indication of the overall cost of our service and following the "health check" a menu of services and costs will be agreed with you. The fees charged for this service will start from as little as £50 plus VAT per month.
